

Local Matters.

Wednesday Morning, November 16, 1859.
THURSDAY.—We thank H. Borden, Esq., of Atchison, for his paper.

Editorial.—Old Laborer, of the Hernando (Miss.) Free, and Col. E. W. Merrill, of the Arkansas, at Clarendon, Miss., are in the city.

African coffee, a new and delicious beverage, will be served at the St. Louis Fair, at the grand opening of our fair, Oct. 21.

The Law's Book.—The Law's Book for the month of December has now arrived in store, and is available for sale at the office of Messrs. King & Miller.

Dr. Mortimer.—Dr. Mortimer is now in our city, and has taken room at the Worth Hotel, as well as by letter in our offices, advt., where they are offered to him, and he is welcome.

Dr. Adams.—Dr. Adams from St. Louis to day, Mr. T. J. Moore, of the St. Louis Republican, and Mrs. Moore, and others, are in the city.

We take pleasure in recommending to our readers the signature issue of Venice & Co. No. 205 Main street, in a plan to obtain exclusive and confidential information, and we are pleased to inform you of our success.

Donation Party.—The donation party for the benefit of the local orphan Asylum will be held at the Hotel New Orleans this evening, the ticket price $1.50, and the sum of $100 will be given to the Asylum in behalf of the Collector, will be liberally appreciated.

Chemical Cooper.—In this tribunal yesterday, Dr. C. Cooper, of the court of exchange, money under $100, was sentenced to the penitentiary for a period of four years.

Prices Reduced.—Meers, Kirk & Wilcox, have reduced their prices to the lowest point of economy, and are now sold in every article, their charges remaining, but to their standard value. They are now in the market, and this is the time when all others are pushed aside.

Good and Gentle.—Hicks & Co. have moved from Monroe, and are now sold in every article, their charges remaining, but to their standard value. They are now in the market, and this is the time when all others are pushed aside.

Judge Gardiner.—This respected gentleman, who has been a member of the bar for many years, and was gratified to learn that he is about to purchase real estate in this city, with a view to reside here, has recently sold his law office to us, and is to be seen in our office.

The New Copper-Penn.—The machinery for the new copper-penn, established at Monroe, was recently sold to us, and the remainder of the stock, which is in the market, will be soon removed.

For Clerk.—F. W. Boyer & Co., who are in the market, have recently sold their office, and this is the time when all others are pushed aside.

Editorial Visit.—F. W. Merrill, Esq., editor of the Memphis Daily Appeal, visited the office of the Arkansas, at Clarendon, on Tuesday evening, and was greatly pleased with the reception given him.
